

"It's not just the planting scheme that entices visitors to this Sussex plot - it's also the home-made tea and cakes!"

So said Francine Raymond in the opening to her Sunday Telegraph feature on the garden in 2015.

In 2024, visitors can make a choice from each of the following 3 cakes at time of booking or 24 hours prior to visit. Alternatively, you can take pot luck on the day.

Alex Reece said of Driftwood in her Coast Magazine feature in August 2017:
*"A coastal garden full of innovative planting and original artworks serving delicious tea and cake. Geoff's baking is almost as big a draw as his inventive plantsmanship."
